CIRCULAR TO ALL MEMBERS
(C07/2025)

Dear Members,

2025 MISIF / NICKEL INSTITUTE / INTERNATIONAL MOLYBDENUM ASSOCIATION WEBINARS

We are pleased to inform that MISIF, Nickel Institute (NI) and the International Molybdenum Association (IMOA) are jointly organizing the second and third Webinar in 2025 to promote wider applications for stainless steels as a material. MISIF has been regularly collaborating with the Nickel Institute, which is based in Belgium and IMOA in conducting workshops and courses relating to the application of stainless steel in the various sectors. The webinar will be facilitated by Dr. Roger Francis, Technical Consultant Nickel Institute, United Kingdom. Dr. Francis has over 50 years of experience as a corrosion engineer, specialising in marine corrosion, desalination, sour oil and gas corrosion, mineral processing, and the chemical and process industries. He currently runs his own corrosion consultancy firm, RFMaterials, established in 2012.
