NOTICE OF INITIATION OF ANTI-DUMPING DUTY INVESTIGATION WITH REGARD TO IMPORTS OF COLD ROLLED STAINLESS STEEL PRODUCTS IN COILS, SHEETS OR ANY OTHER FORM ORIGINATING OR EXPORTED FROM THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA

(AD 03/26)

PURSUANT to section 20 of the Countervailing and Anti-Dumping Duties Act 1993 [Act 504] and regulation 7 of the Countervailing and Anti-Dumping Duties Regulations 1994 [P.U. (A) 233/1994], the Government has received a petition alleging that the imports of cold rolled stainless steel products in coils, sheets or any other form, originating or exported from the Republic of Indonesia (“subject merchandise”) are being dumped in Malaysia causing material injury to the domestic industry in Malaysia producing the like product (“Malaysian industry”), and the Government has decided that an anti-dumping investigation be initiated.

Petition

2. The petition was lodged by—

Bahru Stainless Sdn. Bhd.
PTD 4069, (PLO 108) Jalan Rumbia 4
Tanjung Langsat Industrial Complex
81700 Pasir Gudang
Johor Darul Takzim
Malaysia,

the domestic producer of cold rolled stainless steel products in coils, sheets or any other form, on behalf of the Malaysian industry.

Subject merchandise

3. (1) The subject merchandise alleged to have been dumped in Malaysia is cold rolled stainless steel products in coils, sheets or any other form, classified under the Harmonised System Code (“H.S. Code”) and ASEAN Harmonised Tariff Nomenclature

("AHTN") 7219.31.00 00, 7219.32.00 00, 7219.33.00 00, 7219.34.00 00, 7219.35.00 00, 7219.90.00 00, 7220.20.10 00 and 7220.20.90 00.

(2) The H.S. Code and AHTN specified in subparagraph (1) are given only for information and have no binding effect on the classification of the subject merchandise.

Allegation of dumping

4. (1) The allegation of dumping is based on a comparison between the normal value of the subject merchandise in the Republic of Indonesia with their corresponding export prices when the subject merchandise is exported to Malaysia.

(2) Based on this comparison, dumping margins as alleged by the petitioner are significant for that producers or exporters.

Allegation of injury

5. (1) The petitioner has stated and provided evidence that the imports of the subject merchandise from the Republic of Indonesia have increased in terms of absolute quantity.

(2) It was further alleged that effect of such dumping, the Malaysian industry has suffered injury, among others, an increase in import volume, reduction in market share, price undercutting, price depression, reduction in sales and turnover, low production and capacity utilisation, decrease in employment and wages, and increase in inventory.

Procedure

6. (1) Having determined that there is sufficient evidence exists to warrant an anti-dumping duty investigation be initiated and that such investigation is in the public interest, the Government initiates an investigation pursuant to section 20 of the Countervailing and Anti-Dumping Duties Act 1993 and subregulation 7(1) of the Countervailing and Anti-Dumping Duties Regulations 1994.

(2) The investigation will determine whether the existence, degree and effect of the alleged dumping of the subject merchandise to Malaysian industry.

Questionnaire

7. (1) For the purpose of obtaining information deemed necessary for the investigation, the Government will distribute questionnaires to—

- (a) the Malaysian industry and any association of producers in Malaysia;
- (b) the producers or exporters of the subject merchandise from the Republic of Indonesia named in the petition;
